Attention Seller: Each of the exemptions a customer may claim on this form has special rules (see instructions on back). INSTRUCTIONS

1. Buying for Resale: The buyer must have an Idaho seller's permit number unless he is a wholesaler who makes no retail sales or an out-of-state retailer who makes no more than two sales in Idaho in any 12-month period. An Idaho seller's permit number has up to nine digits followed by an "S." Example: 123456-S. If the number contains any other letter or is an inappropriate number, such as a federal Employer Identification Number, the certificate is not valid. If you wish to verify a seller's permit number, call any State Tax Commission office.

2. Producer Exemptions: Businesses that produce products for resale can buy goods that are directly and primarily used in the production process without paying tax. Loggers, publishers of free newspapers (with at least 10% editorial content) and broadcasters are granted a similar exemption. However, a seller must charge these buyers sales tax on any of the following:

- A hand tool with a unit cost of $100 or less
- Transportation equipment and supplies
- Research equipment and supplies
- Goods used in selling/distribution
- Janitorial or cleaning equipment or supplies
- Maintenance or repair equipment and supplies
- Office equipment and supplies
- Any licensed motor vehicle or trailer and parts
- Aircraft and parts
- Recreation vehicle
- Goods that become improvements to real property (such as fence posts)

Note to seller: You may stamp or imprint a Producer Exemption Claim on the front of your invoice. If a customer fills in his exemption claim on a stamped or imprinted statement each time you make an exempt sale to him, you do not have to keep a Form ST-101 on file for the customer. Contact any Tax Commission Office to obtain the required language for the statement.

3. Exempt Buyers: These buyers are exempt from tax on all purchases.

Hospitals: Only licensed nonprofit hospitals qualify. Nursing homes or similar institutions do not.

Nontaxing State: Construction materials for a job in a nontaxing state are exempt from Idaho sales tax. This exemption applies only to materials that will become part of real property and only if the contractor is not subject to a use tax or a similar tax in the other state. Jobs in Oregon, Montana and Alaska qualify, and some jobs in Washington.

Agricultural Irrigation: Irrigation equipment and materials for an agricultural irrigation project are exempt. Only agricultural irrigation projects qualify. For example, an irrigation system for a golf course or a residence would not qualify.

Production Equipment: A contractor who installs production equipment for a producer/manufacturer can buy the materials for the production equipment exempt from tax. This exemption does not apply to materials that become part of real property.

5. Other Exempt Goods and Buyers: If a buyer claims an exemption that is not listed on this form, he should mark the "other" block and must list the section of the law under which he is claiming the exemption or the certificate is not valid.

Aircraft Used to Transport Passengers or Freight for Hire: Only aircraft purchased by an airline, charter service, air ambulance service or air freight company qualify. Parts and repair and replacement materials for the exempt aircraft are also exempt. Examples of aircraft that don't qualify for this exemption are those used for recreational flights, aerial spraying, dumping or logging.

Aircraft Purchased by Nonresidents for Out-of-State Use: An aircraft sold to a nonresident is exempt if it will be immediately removed from Idaho and registered in another state and will not be stored or used in Idaho more than 90 days in any 12-month period. Aircraft kits and hang gliders do not qualify for this exemption.

A business is a "nonresident" if it has no business presence in Idaho. A business with property in Idaho, or employees working here, does not qualify for this exemption.

Heating Fuels: Heating fuels such as wood, coal, petroleum, propane and natural gas are exempt when purchased to heat an enclosed building or a building under construction, or when used for cooking or water heating.

Church: A church may buy food to sell meals to its members or qualifying goods for its food bank without paying tax. Churches must pay tax on all other goods they buy to use.

Food banks and Soup Kitchens: Food banks and soup kitchens may buy food or other goods used to grow, store, prepare or serve the food exempt from sales tax. The exemption does not include licensed motor vehicles or trailers.

American Indian: Sales to an enrolled Indian tribal member are exempt if the seller delivers the goods to him within the reservation boundaries. The buyer's Tribal Identification Number is required.

Ski Resorts: The owner or operator of a downhill ski area with an aerial passenger tramway may buy parts, material and equipment that become a component part of the tramway and snowgrooming and snowmaking equipment for the slope exempt from tax. An aerial tramway includes chair lifts, gondolas, T-bar and J-bar lifts, platter lifts, rope tows and similar devices.
